The one document that keeps a series consistent.

1

KNOW YOUR CHARACTERS

Names, goals, flaws and how they speak. Write it down once so they stay the same in book three.

2

SET THE WORLD RULES

Places, timeline and what is possible and not. Decide the rules early, then stick to them.

3

PLAN THE BEATS

One line per chapter: what changes?
If nothing changes, the chapter may not need to exist.

4

KEEP IT

UPDATED

Add new facts as you write. Eye color, dates, names. Your memory will not hold them all.

5

FASTER

NEXT BOOKS

A good bible means fewer continuity errors and a quicker start on every new book.
